Nick and Serina—Home built in 2004: There is no better person, than Mike Pomarico, to have on your side when making one of the biggest investments in your life.

The guidance Mike provides is based on his years of experience; therefore, you can be assured that his suggestions will be extremely satisfying over time. Customers can count on Mike's dedication to a project being consistent from groundbreaking through the punch list items. His team of contractors did a wonderful job constructing our home with quality materials which are standing the test of time. The suppliers he uses are extremely helpful in providing direction in choosing materials that fit the customers' lifestyle and meet with the applicable budget.

Even after over 4 years of living in our home, Mike continues to quickly respond to any questions we have for him, and it is such a pleasure to have that confidence in someone. Our past experiences with contractors were not even close to being this gratifying. Mike was highly recommended to us by a friend, and we are so grateful that we were lucky enough to have obtained his services. Mike is extraordinary; his ability to be patient during the process is something that sets the tone for a delightful experience. Not many people who have had a house built can say that they still are friendly with their contractor; however, we consider Mike a lifelong friend.
